IRISH WOMEN IN AMERICA DENOUNCE U.S. POLICY ON ERIN

Picket British Embassy And Give Big Street Demonstration FOR HOME RULE!

Meanwhile Canadian Gets Chief Secretaryship To Ireland

(Reuter's Service)
Washington, April 3.—Mr. Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State, has issued a statement saying that the Government deeply regrets that Irish women home rulers should have demonstrated at the British Embassy and that it is considering measures effectively to carry out its duty of hospitality to the representative of a friendly power.

The statement followed picketing in front of the Embassy on the part of a number of Irish women, culminating in a six hour demonstration in the street where the Embassy is situated, with a banner inscribed with denunciations of America's Irish policy.

London, April 3.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, who has succeeded Mr. J. I. Macpherson as Chief Secretary for Ireland, has gone to Sunderland to prepare for a by-election fight which is expected to be short.

MORE DUBLIN TROUBLE FEARED ON EASTER

"Sir Hamar Greenwood, if he is returned, will be in the House of Commons after Easter to supervise the committee stage of the Home Rule Bill.

There have been rumors of Lord French retiring from the Lord Lieutenantcy but this is officially denied. Lord French is in complete agreement with the Government on the subject of repression of terrorism.

Official news from Dublin states that there is no indication of widespread trouble at Easter but precautions have been taken to meet a sudden outbreak. Armed soldiers last night and today held the approaches to Dublin and London, derry examining motor cars, searchlights and barbed wire being used to facilitate the examinations.

GREENWOOD ANXIOUS TO END QUESTION

London, April 3.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, interviewed today said: "Being a Canadian Home Ruler, born in a Home Rule country, my appointment to the Irish Secretaryship is a sign of the Government's earnest desire to settle the Irish question along Home Rule lines once and for all. The Government believes and all the cables already show that the choice of a Canadian will be enthusiastically received in the Empire. It will also be a sign to every American of the Government's real desire to bring order and prosperity to Ireland." Sir Hamar Greenwood concluded by emphasizing the wish to see the Irish question settled.

(Special To THE CHINA PRESS)
Tientsin, April 3.—At the opening business session of the big Y.M.C.A. Convention Chang Po-ling was elected chairman of the Conference, with Cheng Chin-yi and Lan Tun-shan as vice-chairmen. Because of the size of the convention four secretaries, H. H. K'ung of Oberlin-Shenai College, Shen Wen-ching of Hankow, K. Y. Ma of Hangchow and L. D. Cio of Foochow were elected.

The most important matter of business to come before the convention was the report of the national committee presented by the executive general secretary, David Z. T. Yui. The report covered the period from the beginning of the movement to the present time and the statistics presented showed the tremendous growth of the organization.

The report of the National Committee was received with enthusiasm and the reading was frequently interrupted by applause. Following its adoption, Reverend Cheng Chin-yi, Secretary of the China Confession Committee of Shanghai led the conference in a devotional service which closed the morning session.

Huge Outlay For Extension Of Electrical Plant Will Be Proposed

The role to be played in future by Chinese residents of the Settlement in Municipal affairs will be decided today when the annual ratepayers meeting will be held at the Town Hall. Voters will have the option of supporting a resolution put forward by the Council providing for a Chinese consultative committee or rejecting the Council resolution by adopting an amendment proposed by Mr. Edward S. Little and supported by Mr. Edward I. Ernack. The latter resolution is the outcome of dissatisfaction expressed by members of "B" Company, (British) following the appointment of an officer over a year ago without previously referring the name of the appointee to the men. The Municipal Council is not in accord with the S.V.C. committee's findings.

ELECTRICITY MATTERS

After adoption of rules and passing of the report and accounts for 1919, ratepayers will be asked to pass a resolution of thanks to Major T. E. Trueman for his services as commandant of the S.V.C. during the past year. This resolution will be moved by the Council.

The Council will also propose the appointment of a committee to investigate the Department and asking that the Council be authorized to close contracts for the extensions planned. An amendment will be proposed by Mr. Edward I. Ernack.

GERMAN FORCE INVADES RUHR BASIN; FRENCH READY TO ACT

Millerand Accuses Berlin Of Deliberate Violation Of Treaty Pledges FOCH CALLED IN

Advisability Of Seizing Four Big Teuton Cities Is Considered

(Reuter's Service)
Paris, April 3.—M. Millerand tonight sent a letter to the German Charge d'Affaires stating that while yesterday he had insisted on the immediate withdrawal of the troops for which permission had been asked to enter the Ruhr basin, and had stated that France would on no account admit a derogation of articles 43 and 44 of the Versailles Treaty without previous agreement, Germany today had notified the Peace Conference that Reichswehr troops had already entered the Ruhr basin and had applied post factum for assent. M. Millerand stated that he had also learned tonight that the German Government had informed the French representative in Berlin that the Imperial Commissioner had been given full liberty of action for the employment of troops in the Ruhr region and had assumed responsibility for their action in the neutral zone.

REICHSWEHR INVASION SEEN AS "HOSTILE ACT"

M. Millerand added that he had further learned that the Reichswehr began to attack in the neutral zone yesterday and that their front had already reached a line north of Dortmund Duisburg. By this sudden attack, M. Millerand declared, the German Government had infringed articles 43 and 44 of the Treaty which declare that in the event of such violation Germany shall be regarded as committing a hostile act against the signatory Powers calculated to disturb the peace of the world. M. Millerand announced in conclusion that he would communicate the French Government's decision later.

The French Premier afterwards conferred with Marshal Foch.

London, April 3.—The question of the restoration of order in the Ruhr region depends on the action of the German Government in despatching troops thither, with regard to which there has apparently been a misunderstanding, as between Paris and Berlin.

FRANCE CONSIDERING SEIZURE OF TOWNS

Reuter's Paris correspondent telegraphed last night that Herr Mayer, the German Charge d'Affaires at Paris had handed M. Millerand a note from the German government again requesting permission to reinforce the German troops in the Ruhr region and at the same time mentioning that four battalions of infantry and some batteries had entered the neutral zone on April 1, as the German authorities believed that France has agreed to such action.

M. Millerand in reply to Herr Mayer demanded the recall of these troops, declaring that France would still consider the advisability of occupying Frankfurt, Darmstadt and Hanau, in the event of a German advance.

Meanwhile Reuter's Berlin correspondent states that a communique was issued in the German capital yesterday declaring that the despatch of troops to the Ruhr region was inevitable, as lawlessness was unchecked, armed brigands were looting the food supplies and the authorities were powerless to protect civilians. But the resolution passed by the Executive of the workers in the Ruhr region warns the Berlin Government that the general

Major W. R. McBain's Private Plane Is Received At Customs House

Major William R. McBain, who was a British air squadron commander with three years of active service on the Western front when the war ended, will take to the clouds above Shanghai within a month in the first privately owned airplane in China. The plane, which was ordered some months ago from England by Major McBain, has arrived and is awaiting delivery at the Customs House.

Since his return from the war Major McBain has taken an active interest in aeronautics in China, being one of the organizers of the Shanghai Aero Club, and in order to put the machine he has purchased into service at the earliest moment, while it was en route from England he has been supervising the work of laying out a private landing field on Hungjiao Road where a fully equipped hangar will house the new plane.

The new airplane is a two-seater Armstrong-Whitworth type and Major McBain expects to assemble it and put it into service within the next three weeks. The landing field is 300 yards in length by 200 yards wide.

Major McBain has studied aviation since 1911 and when the war came on he enlisted with the British air forces and went overseas after nine days' training. In the course of his career as an air fighter he brought down 13 enemy planes in combat and on two occasions was himself shot down.

The air squadron that he commanded destroyed 207 enemy planes in one year.

Girl Meets Her Husband

Lee had no money with which to redeem the pawned articles and a quarrel ensued. But Lee and his wife, the brother-in-law and the girl spent an evening at the New World, on Tuesday, March 31. Returning from the amusement place at one o'clock in the morning it was decided that the hour was too late for the girl to return to her home and she was invited to spend the night with the Lees. She accepted the invitation.

At 6 o'clock Wednesday morning the brother-in-law, Sung Foh, left the house to go to his place of employment. At 9 o'clock Lee sent his wife to market and upon her return sent her out to a hot water shop. Upon her return from the second errand Lee told his wife he had slain the girl.

The wife demanded that she be allowed to see the body and accompanied her husband to the bedroom occupied by the girl. The body, with stab wounds in the neck and head, was lying on a bed.

COUPLE TAKE FLIGHT

Lee's wife was greatly frightened and began to scream but was silenced by her husband and together the couple fled from the house. They went into the country, about half way to Woonung, and took refuge at the home of a farmer. Upon learning of the tragedy the countryman demanded that they leave at once and

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Shanghai, April 6.—According to an unofficial report received in Shanghai, today, the Japanese on the night of April 4-5 seized the public buildings and railway station at Vladivostok where they ran up the Japanese flag. Fighting was in progress yesterday morning between Japanese and Russian troops.

Later reports state that today (April 6) all is quiet in Vladivostok. The Japanese have handed back the buildings which they had seized and the Japanese flag has been hauled down.

It appears that the clash was due to a misunderstanding, the Japanese asserting that their patrols had been attacked by the Russians without provocation, and that the Japanese acted in retaliation.

Tokio, April 6.—The War Office announces that hostilities are reported to have commenced on April 5 between Japanese and Russians at Nikolai and Habarovsk.

CHINESE PROTEST GUNBOAT DAMAGE

Feking, April 6.—Admiral Lin Chen-cheng has protested to the Soviet authorities against the damage sustained by the gunboats (Jialui and Liwai) and also the damage to property of Chinese merchants at Nikolai by shot and shell in the recent fighting between Japanese and Soviet troops. The position is thus complicated, as the Soviet authorities have already lodged a protest against alleged attack by the Japanese.

Paris, April 2.—According to a telegram from Riga the Letts have repulsed attacks north of the Dvina and the Bolsheviks have retired abandoning considerable numbers of killed and wounded as well as machine guns.

TOKIO SCOUTS NEW NICOLAEVSK REPORT

No official information regarding fighting at Nicolai was received at the War Office and as all the organs of communication are in the hands of the Bolsheviks there is no means of ascertaining the accuracy of the report. which was submitted in response to your Commission's request and upon a written statement furnished by certain ex-members of "B" Company who considered that they had a grievance. In the Council's opinion—and I am to emphasize that the Council regrets that it was called upon to express such an opinion—the Commission was not justified in reacting its findings without calling as witnesses the Commandant, Mr. Cubitt and the members of "B" Company concerned.

FINDINGS UNWARRANTED
The findings of the Commission as far as they may be considered to reflect upon the action of the Commandant and of Mr. Cubitt in the Council's opinion unwarranted since neither has been given the opportunity of stating his case—I am to add that the Council has every reason to believe that had the Commandant been called as a witness, his evidence would have been of such a character as would not improbably have resulted in the Commission reaching very different conclusions to those expressed in its findings or in some of them.

The statement "that between the dates January 15, 1918 and November 19, 1919, 75 members of the Company resigned is correct as a statement of fact, but given without the natural context of how many joined in the same period, it is misleading. Some units change as much as 33 percent in one year in normal times. As a matter of fact 37 joined "B" Company during the period mentioned so that the actual loss in the strength of the Company was 38.

The Council does not know whether the members of the Commission were aware of the fact that a great many of the resignations in "B" Company which took place after October, 1918, were not voluntary but the result of threatening anonymous post cards, sent through the post. In one instance within the Council's knowledge several of these anonymous post cards were received by a member of the Company.

ACTION UNJUSTIFIED
I am strictly speaking it was not the appointment or promotion of an officer, but his transfer from one company to another that was the focus of the trouble in "B" Company. Transfers of officers from one unit to another are not specifically provided for in the Corps regulations, Article VIII referring only to appointments and promotions. The Council does not lay any particular stress on this distinction, but finds it necessary to point out that Article XXXVII of the Corps regulations provides that "Should any case arise not provided for by these regulations or should there be a doubt as to the interpretation of any regulation, the Council shall decide the course to be adopted." If the ex-members of "B" Company were dissatisfied with the Council's ruling on Article VIII they should unquestionably have adopted constitutional means to bring about an alteration by the Council of the regulation in question as would meet with the wishes of the Corps as a whole. The action that they in fact thought fit to take was, in the Council's opinion, wholly unjustified and subversive of discipline, whatever grievances they may have had.

All Corps orders appear in the public press and there appears to the Council to be no good reason why Corps Order No. 101 should not have been so published. Apart from this the Council desires to point out that the Commandant's action in the matter, with which the order dealt, was upheld by the Committee which sat in the latter part of December, 1918, and in the early part of January, 1919, and whose report was published in the Municipal Gazette of January 23, 1919, and that upon that Commission's recommendation the order was republished with the word "discharged" substituted for "dismissed." The Council considers that your Commission cannot be considered a court of appeal on the findings of the Committee referred to and that it was not within its province to pass judgment upon a matter upon which that Committee had already passed judgment.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
N. O. LIDDELL,
Secretary.

ASKS MORE EVIDENCE

Shanghai, December 17, 1919.

Sir,—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of December 3, and the enclosures therewith. As requested by you I return the file of correspondence (No. 1 enclosure), copies of which have been made for the members of the Commission.

I am now directed to ask you to be good enough to supply, for the information of the Commission, copies (six if possible) of the evidence taken before the Court of Inquiry of November 1, 1918, and the findings thereof; the Commandant's decision of November 29, 1918; and all the correspondence leading up to Lieut. Beytagh's appointment.

The Commission also desires that the secretaries of the S. V. C. companies be asked to ascertain, from their minutes, what is now, and what has been the custom of appointing officers during the last six or seven years—and, in particular, was it customary to call meeting of members, or not, for that purpose?

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

S. HAMMOND,
Secretary.

N. O. LIDDELL, Esq., Secretary, Municipal Council,
Council Room,

Shanghai, January 10, 1920.

Sir,—I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of December 17, 1919, and in response to your request for copies of certain documents and for certain information for your Commission to reply as follows:—

1. The Court of Inquiry of November 1, 1918, was called by the Commandant to deal with a question of discipline. Under the procedure governing Courts of Inquiry the only person who would be entitled to a copy of the evidence taken before the Court and of the Court's findings would be an officer or member of the Volunteer Corps, who is tried by court martial in respect of any matter or thing reported upon by the Court of Inquiry. As a matter of fact no one was so tried nor was any charge framed. The Council therefore regrets that it is unable to call upon the Commandant for copies of the evidence and findings as requested by your Commission.

2. The Council cannot trace any decision of the Commandant of November 29, 1918, and on inquiry the Commandant states that he does not know to what decision your Commission intends to refer.

3. The whole of the correspondence leading up to Lieut. Beytagh's appointment was sent you with my letter of December 3, 1919.

4. Secretaries of S.V.C. units, where such exist, are appointed under unit bylaws for dealing with matters other than military matters, they are not provided for under S. V. C. regulations and minutes (if any are kept) are therefore private records from which neither the Council nor the Commandant can, it is regretted, require any extract.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

N. O. LIDDELL,
Secretary.

THREATENED WITHDRAWAL

Shanghai, January 26, 1920.

Sir,—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of January 10, and on behalf of the Commission to reply as follows:—

- 1.—The committee derives its authority from a resolution of ratepayers and cannot recognise any plea of privilege in respect of documentary or other evidence which it may require to enable it properly to undertake the inquiry with which it has been entrusted.

The Commission considers the evidence and findings of the Court of Inquiry of November 1, 1918, necessary for the purpose of its investigation.

If the refusal to produce the material is persisted in the Commission will find itself obliged to withdraw altogether from the inquiry and report accordingly to the ratepayers, indicating the reason for such withdrawal.

2.—The decision referred to is that given by the Commandant at his office at 6 p.m. on November 29, to certain members of "B" Company who were ordered to attend by circular dated November 27, 1918. It is understood that this decision was embodied in a typewritten document which was read to the men.

SHANGHAI-PEKING AIR MAIL ROUTE OPENS IN SPRING

General Ting Kinn Gives Plans For Aeronautical Development Contemplated By China

Elaborate plans for the development of commercial aeronautics in China were announced at a tea party given by General Ting Kinn, director of the Department of Aeronautics, Peking, yesterday at the Yia Ping Shang Hotel before representatives of the local press. Two main routes between Shanghai and Peking and between Peking and Urumqi will be established. Chinese aviators will be trained both abroad and in China and foreign technical experts will be employed for the construction of Chinese airplanes.

Foreign-trained aviators and engineers who are now abroad will be requested to come back to serve their own country. Mail, passenger, freight and topographical services will be maintained between the principal cities. General Ting expects that mail service between here and Peking will begin next spring.

The 100 Vickers machines contracted for by the Government will be utilized. Forty of these have already been delivered but the remainder may be exchanged for smaller machines.

"China is determined to take advantage of all the air rights secured by the treaty which she signed on October 13, 1919," said General Ting in part. "We are aware of the importance of aeronautics in modern warfare, but what prompted the government to emphasize this branch of work is the fact that it is a civilizing device bringing the remote corners of the globe into closer relationship."

General Ting spoke in length of the history of aeronautics in China and expressed satisfaction at the adaptability of Chinese aviators. He referred to the application of aeronautics in the suppression of bandits in China, which is costing the nation a considerable number of lives and sum of money every year.

General Ting leaves for Hangchow tomorrow where he will discuss further plans with General Lu Yung-shiang, Tsuchun of Chekiang.

DeWitt Newing Is Recovering Health

DeWitt Newing, comedian for the Denniston Players, who was attacked by typhoid fever and was near death in the Victoria Nursing Home here for many weeks, is out of danger and rapidly approaching complete recovery, according to an announcement made last night by Dr. William E. O'Hara.

Marie Tempest

Marie Tempest and her delightful company gave a second creditable performance of W. Somerset Maugham's delightful "Penelope" to a small audience last night at the Lyceum. Miss Tempest, in the title role, and Mr. Graham Browne as the manipulating husband who was later the victim of manipulation, were splendid in the leads and had excellent support from an efficient cast.

The character part by Ashton Garry was one of the best efforts in the piece while Miss Doris Gilham is clever as his wife, the "sainted mother" of Penelope. The house, though small it was last night, united with those who saw the production Monday in anticipating a bigger part for Kyrie Sylvaney. Miss Hamilton was convincing as Mrs. Ferguson and Roger Barry pleased as Uncle Davenport. Mr. Millard handled a minor part without difficulty. "Penelope" will be repeated tonight and tomorrow the Tempest Company will start a three-nights' engagement of "The Marriage of Kitty."

U.S. IS KEEN FOR NEWS OF ORIENT

Clarence Bosworth Is Here To Extend Service Of New York
Sun And Herald

How rapidly America's once dormant interest in the affairs of the Far East is growing is evidenced by the manner in which New York has received a new Far Eastern department, now well established in the New York Sun and the New York Herald which were lately merged under the ownership of Frank A. Munsey. The department, given over exclusively to news of the Orient and Australasia, consists of two pages that appear weekly and is under the management of Mr. Clarence E. Bosworth, who is in Shanghai for ten days and will go from here to Manila.

Mr. Bosworth said yesterday that the Sun and Herald's circulation on Wednesday, the day on which the Far Eastern department appears, is considerably larger than on other days of the week. It is Mr. Munsey's policy, he added, to give special attention to news-spheres of particular importance and the course has been well justified in the success of the Far Eastern department. Mr. Bosworth, who has spent much time in the Far East and in Australasia, and formerly was in the American federal service in Australia, returned from a trip to Australia last November and arrived here from Japan on the Pacific Mail liner Colombia Tuesday. He is developing and extending the news organization in the Far East for The Sun and The Herald.

China Political Notes

From Chinese Papers

President Hsu has summoned General Wang Shih-chen to Peking apparently to ask him to persuade general Tuan Chi-jui to return, but really he wants him to reconcile the Anhui and Chihli factions.

In reply, Tuan assures Hsu that he will return if there is anything important, but he does not wish to interfere with the Cabinet.

The Parliament, seeing that Mr. Lu Chang-hsiang has long been on leave and the Government does not nominate his successor, thereby neglecting diplomatic affairs, will shortly address an interpellation to the Government.

The despatch from the Russian Soviet Government has been referred by the Government to Parliament.

Greece offers to abandon extra-territoriality in order to enter into commercial treaty with China, and the Government has with instructions to Mr. Yo. Charge d'Affaires, to accept this offer.

Premier Chin wishes to maintain Governor Chu Yin-kwang of Shantung in office until his position becomes untenable when Mr. Pan Fu will be appointed to succeed him.

Spectacular Blaze Does Little Damage At Telegraph Building

Bamboo Protective Structure Partially Destroyed; Fire In Nanking Road

Though spectacular while it lasted, a fire which burned the northern and eastern bamboo protective barriers of the Telegraph Company building under construction on Avenue Edward VII did little damage early last evening because of the prompt work of Central Division firemen.

Evidently originating in the one-story frame structure used by the contractors to store tools and as a cook house for the laborers, the fire spread quickly and soon skirted up the bamboo which surrounds the partially completed building. At times the flames shot 50 feet into the air. Several awnings on the west side of the Melian building were slightly burned.

FIRE IN MALOO

At 7:38 the Central Division was called to deal with a fire at 69-79 Nanking Road, near Shuntung. The premises are occupied by a jewelry shop. An electric switch board had started the blaze which had a good start when the department arrived. Wires were cut and the fire extinguished with little trouble.

HONGKEW PRISON BREAK IS HALTED

Leader Of Plot To Free Fifty Men From Jail Is Sentenced

A plot to break jail and free 50 prisoners, among them ten accused of armed robbery, from the Hongkew prison was made public yesterday when Woo Yuen-ang came before the Mixed Court on charges of armed robbery and jail breaking. American Assessor Jacobs and Magistrate Loh heard the case.

The offender was sentenced to three months imprisonment but the armed robbery charge was dismissed.

An alleged accomplice of Woo in the plot is to be given a hearing before the Japanese assessor.

According to the story told the court Woo and his accomplice worked for three days before they were discovered trying to dislodge three bars from a window in the prison. Their success would have meant the escape of 50 inmates of the institution.

On Making Sure

There is nothing like making sure where one's health is concerned. Good health is the best guarantee that life shall be a success. Now it is well-known that digestive disorders are the cause of more cases of ill-health than any other class of ailment. The digestive system is so extensive, so complex and so hard-worked, that its liability to derangement is not astonishing. Happily, however, many digestive ailments can be easily remedied. Happily, too, many digestions need never go wrong. You can make reasonably sure that your digestion will not fail you, even under trying conditions, if you get into the excellent way of taking Beecham's Pills. This "Wonderful Medicine"—as it has been called—does really work wonders with the digestive system. Beecham's Pills impart tone to the stomach, regulate the action of the liver and kidneys and gently stimulate the bowels into healthy activity. Get into the habit of making sure. Have recourse to Beecham's Pills at the first sign of digestive trouble. Make sure of your health by taking

Today's Ratepayers' Meeting

RATEPAYERS of Shanghai will at today's annual meeting make a number of decisions of importance to the future of the port.
They will deal with the report of the Vice Commission, with the question of electricity extension and with the proposal to give our Chinese population representation on the Municipal Council.

Taking these questions in the order named, we can heartily recommend the report of the Vice Commission as a start in the right direction. It provides a progressive scheme for the reduction of com-mercialised vice in Shanghai and as no better scheme has been proposed it should be adopted.

The world has been hammering at this matter for a number of centuries, and the world is probably at least as immoral today as it ever was. But this unhappy situation has been brought about latterly by conditions produced by the Great War, and but for the fights that have been made for morality the world surely would be far lower in the moral scale than it is.

Supplementing the scheme as proposed, we earnestly favor some plan which will break up the ring which is supplying the local brothels with innocent little Chinese girls. These children do not run away from their homes to enter brothels. They are lured, kidnapped or bought outright, brought to Shanghai and sold.

As to the proposal to float a large loan for the purposes of electricity extension, we believe that that department should skip along as best it may for another year or so until the world situation clears.

Most important for the immediate future is the proposal that the Land Regulations be changed so as to permit the election of three Chinese to membership on the Municipal Council, thereby increasing the number of Councilors from nine to 12.
The counter-proposal is that an advisory or consultative board of five Chinese be established.

We favor the first mentioned plan.
We feel that the Chinese are entitled to representation on the Council and we believe that they will, from the considerable number available be able to produce very efficient Councilors, men who should be helpful in solving the vice question and in solving the electricity question, not to speak of others that will arise.

There is always the likelihood however, that this plan, so dear to their hearts, will not go through immediately. It may be defeated today. And in this connection we would advise them that they must accept their victory or defeat in the same way that foreigners would accept. Foreigners will make this decision and foreigners are entitled to make it. This is a foreign ruled community. And while foreigners remain in control this will be a safe place for Chinese. It will be safe for Chinese business men and for Chinese political refugees.

And eventually, when the Chinese outside of Shanghai have patched up their troubles and can come to Shanghai with a clean state, the foreigners here will give them more than the protection which they have given heretofore, and are still giving—will, in fact give them full representation.

Meanwhile they should remember that there are many elements which have no representation but which accept in good spirit the dicta of the powers that be. Superhuman efforts are being made all over the world to set things right.
As Mr. Lamont has pointed out, the world situation is not so bad as it appears to some people, and our Chinese friends who have prospered in this community, in co-operation with and under the protection of foreigners, will be well advised to go along under the established order.

As we have said, we don't know whether they are going to win or lose today, but they will eventually win if they support peace and order and pay their taxes. They cannot win by force.

SEES HOPE FOR CHINA

Sir: A gathering of splendid men like this at the Y.M.C.A.
Convention would give you a new angle on the Chinese problem.
Things cannot be hopeless for China with 1,200 men like these delegates. Cordially yours, (Mrs. H. A.) M. M. WILBUR, Tientsin, April 2, 1920.

A LETTER TO MR. LAMONT

Dear Sir—We have the honor to send you a copy of our official letter to Mr. Lamont which has been delivered to him yesterday.
Please put it in your paper at the earliest convenience.

April 6, 1920.

Enclosure
Mr. Thomas Lamont,
Astor House.
Dear Sir—We are much satisfied with your promise given in your interview with the representatives of the different organisations that the New Consortium will, after formation, respect the wish of our people. And we hereby take the opportunity to lay before you what we were unable to detail to you the other day.

Superficially, China seems to have two Governments, namely, the Peking "bogus" Government and the Canton Military Government but practically she has none.
The reins of these so-called Governments are held by the most corrupt and selfish officials and militarists whose conduct is absolutely contrary to the people's wishes and whose actions tend to arrest the progress of society and to trespass upon the liberty of the common folk. Consequently, we have given up hope of anything good coming out of either Peking or Canton.

If either of these Governments procure pecuniary aid from our friendly countries, the true spirit of a constitutional Government can never actually appear in our country. It would only mean that the Government and the people will always stand in positions hostile to each other. As a result the chaos will be prolonged and the lives and properties of nationals of friendly countries will be endangered.

For the sake of internal as well as international peace, we have finally determined to engage ourselves in reconstructing a Government which will be based upon principles of democracy. After its establishment, many pursuits, railroad construction, disbandment of troops and reformation of the currency will need the financial help of your country. At present both Governments have lost the confidence of the whole nation. We are afraid that they will, under cover of such pursuits and supported by the flattery voice of the speculating politicians who expect to share in the profits, negotiate with the New Consortium, a large loan with which they will oppress the people and ill their private purses. We shall be exceedingly obliged, if you will kindly advise your Government and financiers not to be outwitted by them and not to lend them any pecuniary aid under whatever pretext and upon whatever terms they may propose.

During these few years, the Japanese Government has snatched various rights and privileges from our country by supplying var implements and money to the Northern officials and militarists.
For this reason, hatred and in-ignation are accumulated in our bosoms and consequently, we adopt a boycott plan in the hope that the Japanese merchants and laborers will thoroughly feel the pressure so as to correct the erroneous policy of their Government. Since a good feeling has been bred between America and China, we seriously dislike any misunderstanding to spring up on account of loans or investments by your people which may impede the friendly relations between us.
Yours sincerely,
J. Y. Hsu,

Acting Chairman of Chinese National Organisations Union.
K. J. H.
President of Chinese National Students Federation.
K. A. Sun,
Acting Chairman of Shanghai Associated Bodies.

Tremendous Growth Of Y.M.C.A. In China Shown In Report

that there are many failures in business. (3) The Y. M. C. A. should also teach the dignity, the service, and the ethics of business.
Although the honesty of the Chinese business man is world famous yet he ranks below the scholar and the farmer in the social hierarchy, partly because the Chinese have seen only the selfishness in business. It must be taught that business is service and brings with it culture.

Mr. Si of Nankai spoke on "What the Y. M. C. A.'s program should be in connection with the education of the illiterate?" In this connection he said that special efforts should be made to introduce the phonetic writing.

Mr. H. H. K'ung closed the meeting. He said: "China is today paying the price for her lack of education. China spends only nine cents a year for education per man whereas the United States spends $5.62 and Japan $1.82."

mittee has now two divi-

REASONS FOR SUCCESS

Mr. Yui continued:
"Under present position the report states some reasons for the success of the Associations in China."

"The Association specialises in work for young men. There is no thought of belittling the importance of other classes. The Association has learned that if it were to take care of all people of both sexes and all ages its efforts would be too scattered and its force would be spread too thin to be effective. By concentrating its attention and efforts, it does really effective and productive work.
Generally speaking, young men of similar age have more or less the same habits, temperaments, problems, difficulties and temptations.
By working for them we have been able to find out how to help them in a most effective manner. The validity of this principle has been amply justified in the educational practices of today."

"The Association provides for the young men a full program of development. Most other societies, organisations, and agencies, deal with one aspect of a man's life, either intellectual, or physical, or moral, or spiritual, or social.
They are doing effective work but they usually touch only one aspect.
If they do not succeed with a man in that aspect, they fail altogether."

"The Y.M.C.A. touches a man in all aspects of his life. They have more than one contact with each man. If they fail in one, they may still succeed in another. In fact, we touch a man as a whole, physical, mental, spiritual, and social. Not only do we provide a full program but also we are interested in the well balanced development of each young man.

MEETS REAL NEED

"The Y.M.C.A. exists not merely for a name, a policy, or a program.
It meets a real need. Consider the life of our young men in different cities in China. What awful temptations! How skillfully are the traps laid for them! How many hundreds of thousands of young men fall each year! Talk about the conservation of natural resources."

"The conservation of human life and human talent is the most urgent and important of all. We should conserve our young men.
We should meet their needs in a most inspiring and effective way.
We should not only conserve but also consecrate them for the service of their country and for the service of mankind, and for the glory of God."

"The Y.M.C.A. has life and power. A movement that has life and power grows and develops.
Because it has life and power, it grows and develops; its scope was enlarged and its program enriched.
Educational and physical work were added to its early program."

"Twenty-five years ago it was introduced to China. Chinese young men are different in many respects from the young men of Europe and America. The program suitable for the latter might not be suitable for the former.
So the Association not only grew and developed but it adapted itself to new conditions."

"The records of this report are evidences of the firm hold which the Y.M.C.A., young as it is, already has on the young men of our country."

SERVES ALL CHURCHES

"The Y.M.C.A. is a movement interdenominational as well as international in scope. It serves all the churches alike, leading young men, each according to his own temperament and preference, to the respective churches. The Y.M.C.A. is a hand-maid of the Church. It is an agency working toward universal brotherhood. In this movement, we know no national or racial differences."

"We firmly cling to the permanent truth that God being our Father, we are of one family. This is demonstrated in our regular program of work, and especially in the war work in France. Its program in this direction, with the return of peace, will be enlarged many fold. In the Young Men's Christian Associations of China will have their due share."

"The Y.M.C.A. is a school for teaching and applying democracy.
It teaches young men and boys not merely to shun evil and sin but to hate them and to blot them out.
It inculcates in actual life the principles of love, service, and self-sacrifice. Not to be ministered unto but to minister is its motto."

"Each member is not only a field to be worked upon but a force to work for others. He should join the Y.M.C.A. not simply to get but to give. To the community in which he lives he should give his very best for its perfect happiness. This is true democracy which we should promote, perfect, honor, treasure and support, for which we should lay down our lives if need be and for which,
best of all, we should live."

ITS RELIGIOUS ASPECT

"The Y.M.C.A. name indicates that it is God's movement. Not the Young Men's Association, but the Young Men's Christian Association. Many people question why we emphasise the word Christian. Not a few even offer us very tempting inducements in the form of money, land, buildings, and influence. If we would only sacrifice the Christian character of our work."

"But the Christian character of our work is our most valuable asset. The purpose of our movement is to lead men to know God.
We have clung to this purpose with unswerving loyalty and unfailing steadfastness. And because the Y.M.C.A. is God's movement, it will not fail."
"There are some of the reasons for its success. They are not con-jectures. They are fully demonstrated in every form of association activity. For the prosecution of its work for the next 25 years, we need the heartiest co-operation and support of our numerous friends and of well-wishers of China."

FINANCES OF ASSOCIATION

"The financial report is given in detail. The annual receipts and expenditures since the last convention were:

Year	Receipts	Expenditures
1916	$67,500	$67,489
1917	66,657	66,312
1918	74,291	75,577
1919	86,498	86,168

"Some of the problems outlined in the report are:

How to make the entire membership a force for service.

How to extend the Association to the cities asking for organisation.

The need for many more volunteer workers.

What contribution should the Association be expected to make to the development of the country.

How can we express the truths of Christianity so as to insure correct belief in this time of new thoughts.

How the Associations can relate their service more helpfully to the churches.

How to strengthen our work on its spiritual side.

RECOMMENDATIONS MADE

"During the past 25 years God has richly blessed the work of the Young Men's Christian Associations in China. The delegates present at this convention wish to render thanks for His guidance and to renew their determination before Him to push on vigorously this work until the entire youth of the nation has received the benefit of the four-fold development offered by the Association."

"The delegates of this Convention wish to record their gratitude to the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Associations of North America and to various Mission Boards and other Christian bodies for the experienced Secretaries that they have sent to help the Chinese movement, for their gifts of buildings and for the training facilities they have offered to Chinese Secretaries. The National Committee is authorised to convey this vote of thanksgiving to the bodies above mentioned."

LOYALTY TO CHURCH

"The active members, directors, and secretaries are all members of churches, bound together in one organisation for service. The relationship between the church and the Association is therefore a most intimate one."

"This Convention wishes to reaffirm the loyalty of the Association to the Church and to urge Associations in China to take the Church leaders into their full confidence regarding plans of work so that understanding and co-operation may be secured."

"It is recommended that the delegates of this Convention study, with special care, the recommendations proposed at the secretaries' conference in Hangchow, November 19-27, 1919, on secretarial training, educational, boys' and religious work. Directors and secretaries when formulating their future program should pay special attention to these recommendations."

NEED MORE SECRETARIES

"In order to increase the efficiency of the service of the National Committee to city and student associations, it is recommended that the Convention authorize the National Committee to extend its organisation and increase the number of secretaries so that the city and student divisions of the National Committee will be able to function fully."

"Additional secretaries should also be secured for educational work, religious work, boys' work and industrial work. The business and construction departments should also be extended so as to render more efficient service to local associations."

"The convention recognises that the National Committee should have a yearly budget of at least $110,000."

"The number of National Committee members should be increased to 75 men at least, so that all cities and various classes of men will be represented."

"In order to enable the National Committee to function effectively in cities where Associations are already established and also to enable them to open up new cities, the National Committee is authorized by the convention to secure additional experienced foreign secretaries to the number of at least 95."

"When it is considered necessary to raise money outside of China for buildings or other permanent equipment, the National Committee is authorised to raise subscriptions for itself or for local Associations to cover these needs."

"The time and place of the next Convention is entrusted to the National Committee for decision in consultation with city and student associations."

"The Convention desires the National Committee to continue the lines of work now being carried on."

Silly School Tests

By Dr. Wm. A. McKeever (Professor in The University of Kansas And A Well-Known Educator)

Is the public school a place for children to learn and laugh and live, or is it a place to toe the line, to bring up the tasks, to measure up to the standard? Is it a place to discover the child's talent, be that ever so humble, and to put that energy happily to work; or is it a place to be whipped along from that to the next?

Is the school for the child or is the child for the sake of the school?
In some of our city communities the long suffering parents perhaps were never more nearly wearied to the breaking point than they are today over the everlasting systems of tests, inspections and scientific measurements to which their children are subjected.

Mary and Eva are sisters, eleven and thirteen. Mary is slow but sure, is a beautiful, sweet-tempered and domestic-minded girl. Her school work is only fair, but as little home-helper, as one who can take care of all her clothes and decorate her own room, she is most charming.

Eva is "harum-scarum," but gets her three school lessons at a glance. At home she throws things around, cares little for the duties there, is inclined to be disobedient, and, in general, little more than an ornament.

Now the school has sprung its tests and measurements on these two happy sisters and found Eva A1 and Mary a poor C student.
As a result the happy spirit of that home is broken. While Eva is indifferent to her high rating, Mary is terribly downcast to learn that she is a dullard and she desires to leave the school.
Her sensitive nature is not accustomed to such rebukes as that C grade has given her.

But the whole thing is a fraud.
Eva is not a smarter girl than Mary. She is simply quicker in reading, in figures and in another subject or two of minor importance. Mary is the girl who deserves and needs praise. Her present lowered self-esteem is in substance the unnecessary result of an attack on her moral and her whole character, perpetrated by the inhuman school test.

The sensible teacher can very much relieve this school-test bugsboo which is dividing so many happy families. She can give supplementary tests or inquiries and determine what is the brightest talent of each child and can give the sensitive ones like Mary a grade as they deserve.
On the brightest talent which shows up in the additional test.

Unless your sensitive child thinks well of herself her spirit will drop and the joy will go out of her life. Therefore, seek every honest means to help the sensitive little Mary to glow in the warmth and stimulus of outside approval and of self approval.

Keeping Up With The Cosmic Urge

A New England farmer died about two weeks ago and the fiercest contested will case in the history of that locality has been opened in the courts. The farmer was not what the world would call a rich man, but relatives are popping up from far and near. At last report eighty-nine blood relations had started suits, most of them independent actions, to break the will. The best legal talent in New England has been engaged by all concerned, including the two heirs mentioned in the will. The farmer left only ten acres of rocky soil upon which was a mortgage of $2,000. The fight is over the personal estate, which consisted of two two-gallon jugs of whisky.

An obliging gentleman in Philadelphia has become so enamored of the idea of a scientist to send a rocket to the moon that he has volunteered to make the trip in the rocket. He stipulates only one condition, and that is that a policy for $10,000 on his life shall be furnished by the promoters of the enterprise free of charge. It is understood that various life insurance companies are being approached. The gentleman proposes to bring back much valuable data concerning the social life, politics, crops, government and styles in vogue on the moon.

There is only one slight drawback to the arrangement. Those who are sending the rocket have made no provision for a return trip, and the return trip is very vital to the Philadelphia man, although he does not state why any Philadelphia man should want to get back home. So the whole plan may fall through.

An expert statistician has figured it out that if the United States only had what it spent on the war it could do any one of the following things:
Buy a fur coat for the Goddess of Liberty at present prices.
Keep Congress going two weeks without adding to the national debt.
Finance a ham-and-egg banquet for all the Presidential possibilities.
Enforce the Prohibition law strictly for one week.
Finance the election of another United States Senator from Michigan.

Buy tickets for all the lectures to be given by English authors in this country.
Found a home for aged and unemployed temperance lecturers.

A ouija board always works best for the family that owns it. It peddles the most intimate gossip about the various members of the family and it has been discovered that the best way to accumulate all the news of the neighborhood is to borrow ouija boards one after another.

But this is apt to lead to complications. The other evening a lady was lonesome and borrowed an ouija board from her next door neighbor. The first question she asked was: "Where is my husband? With whom is he spending the evening?"

The ouija promptly spelled "H-e-a-z-e-l." Now it so happens that this lady's husband had never known a Hazel in his life, but the man who lived next door knew one. That ouija board had spelled "Hazel" so often that it didn't know any other girl's name.

Corn Comes Off In One Piece

"Gets-It" Leaves Toe As Smooth As the Palm of Your Hand.

There is only one corn remedy in the world that peels corns and calluses off like a banana skin, and that is "Gets-It." For those who walk and stand a great deal, for shoppers and dancers, there is immediate relief from corn pains, and a quick and easy way to get rid of them. "Gets-It" is applied in two or three seconds. There is no work, no troublesome peeling, no wrapping of toes. "Gets-It" dries in a second or two. That is all. As easy to do as signing your name. The corn loosens from the true flesh and you peel it right off with your fingers while you wonder at the sight and smile. That is why "Gets-It" is the biggest selling corn-remedy in the world today. Be corn-free at last.

"Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at all chemists and stores. Mfg. by S. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, U. S. A. gain any recognition at all. It beats all how a conscience can yell when it thinks it has to. If a man could sit down with his income tax blank, making it just a twosome, the work could be done in one evening, and it would be quite a wonderful evening at that.

Later—I have at last made progress in filling in my blank. I have just found a place I could fill in my business address without its costing me any money. That was a good day's work.

Bold Man

"The Gadsburs had a quarrel this morning. It seems that in some matters pertaining to the dignity of that family Mr. Gadsbur failed to show what Mrs. Gadsbur regarded as the proper spirit, so she called him a mouse."

"And what did Mr. Gadsbur say to that?"

"He said, 'I wish I was a mouse, my dear. I'd have you standing on a chair in no time.'"

Served Her Right

The talkative old lady on the steamer had pestered the guide with her comments and questions ever since they had started.

"Oh, guide, guide," she exclaimed, "what makes that funny streak in the water? Not there—right over there!"

The guide looked up with a sigh.

"That? Oh, that's where the road went across the ice last winter."

Superphonest

"Sir," said the office boy to his employer, "as you know very well that my family is in perfect health, I ask you to let me off this afternoon to go to the ball game."

"Young man," replied the boss, "you are entirely too honest. I have my suspicions of you. You are fired."

Phonetical

James Lawlor says there once was a fellow who said to his friend, "I'll bet you $10 that Lake Michigan is Superior to Lake Ontario." And the friend, being a good sport, though poorly versed in geography, replied:

"Huron."

The Anglo-Dutch (Java) Plantations, Ltd.

The shareholders of the Anglo-Dutch (Java) Plantations, Ltd. held their eighth annual general meeting yesterday afternoon at the offices of their general managers, Messrs. R. N. Truman and Co.

Mr. G. Grayrigg occupied the chair, and the other directors present were Messrs. S. A. Hardoon, E. S. Kadoorie and R. N. Truman.

The total number of shares represented was 104,318.

The secretary having read the notice convening the meeting, the chairman said:

"Gentlemen: The necessary quorum being present, I will ask the secretary to read the notice convening the meeting also the auditors' report."

"The report and accounts, having been in your hands for some days, I will with your permission take same as read."

"The planted area of the Estates remains the same, viz. 3,074 acres of Hevea, of which, about 2,750 is in bearing. Of this acreage, 65 Bousas, say 114 acres, is interplanted with Robusta coffee, we also have 75 acres planted with Lamtoro and Bamboo."

"All available land suitable for Hevea is now planted. A considerably larger amount of money was spent on weeding and the eradication ofalang, than was estimated for, this being due to parts of the Estate getting behind in the weeding and cultivating program during the influenza epidemic of the previous year."

"Food production for the labor force is encouraged and parts of the non-producing areas have been planted by the natives with maize and rice. Over 13,443 trees were thinned out. This work is carefully done under foreign supervision. The trees are planted at varying distances and the numbers per acre vary, but it is intended to eventually bring the stand down to 80 trees per acre. New stumps are planted in open spaces where it is considered there is sufficient light and space to enable such supplies to mature."

"Diseases and pests have been kept well in hand and the treatment for black thread appears to be effective."

"Labor was sufficient for all works but owing to the high price of food stuff it was found necessary to raise the rates of pay."

"Health, I am glad to say, was satisfactory. The rubber harvest amounted to 846,000 lbs. against an estimate of 900,000 lbs. The manager says, that although the total amount of rain in 1919 was about 500 M.M. more than in 1918, the weather conditions were not very favorable, as we got too little rain from July till the end of October, which had of course a very bad influence on the flow of the latex."

"The estimate for 1920 is 1,000,000 lbs. rubber, and the manager expects the estimate to be reached easily, provided the weather conditions are not too much against us."

"The coffee crop was 306 piculs against an estimate of 250 piculs and the price realised was £51.38."

"Famous For Flavor"

Coffee is good coffee—not because we say so, but because those who use it tell us so.

per picul compared with £19.00 in 1918, a very satisfactory increase. The estimated coffee crop for this year is 500 piculs. The F.O.B. cost of rubber production, viz. £44.70 compared with £49.45 in the previous year, may be considered satisfactory, and we may expect to see a lower figure with increased production, and reduced expenditure on the upkeep of gardens."

"For compiling comparative statistics, the guilder has been converted into sterling at the rate of £12 to the pound, which gives the cost of production as £9.4d. The actual sterling cost is higher if we consider that the average rate of the guilder for the year was 11.1854."

"The following prices were realised for our rubber stocks from last year £0.93, 1919 output £1.03, 28, compared with £0.84, 1918, and the sterling equivalent shown in the report was converted at £12 to the pound, which gives 1/8.6. Owing to the fluctuation of the guilder during year, the actual sterling equivalents of the proceeds of sales are difficult to arrive at. Stocks at the end of the year have been taken at book cost."

"The expenditure on various buildings was £10,484.10 and the estimate for 1920 is £3,000, which includes 15 coolie houses at 400 f. each. The expenditure on plant and machinery was £31,649.84, this sum includes the payment for the new motor engine that arrived on the estate at the end of 1918, the new heavy creping machines ordered in 1915 have not yet arrived and we have accepted delivery of another machine which will be installed and paid for this year. These heavy machines should enable the production of a first class crepe. In the above item of expenditure is included the purchase of two motor lorries which are used for transporting the rubber from the estate to the railway, enabling us to get our rubber to market much more expeditiously than before."

"The expenditure on upkeep of main roads was £6,533.13. It is intended this year to metal the estate roads therefore expenditure under this heading is not likely to decrease. As you will have seen from the papers in May 1919, a volcanic eruption occurred at Kioet, about 45 miles from the Anglo-Dutch Estate. I am glad to say that beyond having to stop tapping for two days on account of ash rain, no damage was done to the Estate."

"Mr. Petit, the manager, is going home this year on a well-earned holiday and Mr. Immens, the first assistant, will be in charge. I would like here to record the board's appreciation of the work of the Estate staff, the Sourabaya agents, and our secretaries and managers."

"Now turning to the accounts, I will first take the Dutch company's accounts. It will perhaps be as well to remind you that the English company holds all the shares of the Dutch company and has no other assets and that all the assets are kept in the Dutch company's accounts, only sufficient credit being taken in the English company's accounts to provide the amount required for head office expenditure and dividends. The working account shows a profit of £420,870.95 as compared with £4,012.86 last year."

"The stocks at the end of the year have been taken at book cost, and when sold should return about double. To help you to realise what an adverse effect exchange has on your dividends, I will give you the following comparative figures:

"If our working account for this year had been converted at the exchange ruling at the end of each of the years 1914-1919 we should have received the following amounts:

Francs	Tls.
420,760	@ 389 1/4 1919 = 108,095.00
"	@ 280 1918 = 150,272.00
"	@ 231 1/4 1917 = 181,950.00
"	@ 202 1/4 1916 = 207,785.00

@ 140 1/4 1915 = 299,473.00

@ 137 1914 = 307,124.00

"The profit and loss account, after paying income tax and providing £10,000 for income tax reserve and making the usual transfers to the English company for various services rendered, the credit for which you will notice in the English company's accounts, there remains a profit for the year of £329,922.09 to which must be added the balance from last year 103,714.39

£443,636.48 which profit the directors have dealt with as follows:

Francs	Tls.
To payment of a Dividend to the Anglo-Dutch (Java) Plantations, Limited	300,000.00
Leaving to be carried forward	143,636.48
	F. 443,636.48

"As you will see from the amounts written off, our assets stand on the books at a very low valuation. The profit and loss account of the Anglo-Dutch (Java) Plantations, Limited, shows a profit of £329,922.09 to which must be added the profit brought forward from last year £103,714.39

"The profit in the profit and loss account of the English company is derived solely from the credits given by the Dutch company for dividends and amounts transferred as agency commission, etc. and from interest on money lying in Shanghai, transfer fees, etc. I mention this particularly as there seems to be some difficulty among certain shareholders in understanding the accounts of Java companies."
